THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE

Thedford's Black-Draught has saved doctors' bills for more than sixty years. For the common family ailments, such as constipation, indigestion, hard colds, bowel complaints, chills and fever, biliousness, headaches and other like complaints no other medicine is necessary. It invigorates and regulates the liver, assists digestion, stimulates action of the kidneys, purifies the blood, and purges the bowels of foul accumulations. It cures liver complaint, indigestion, sour stomach, dizziness, chills, rheumatic pains, sideache, backache, kidney troubles, constipation, diarrhœa, biliousness, piles, hard colds and headache. Every druggist has Thedford's Black-Draught in 25 cent packages and in mammoth size for $1.00. Never accept a substitute. Insist on having the original made by the Chattanooga Medicine Company.

I believe Thedford's Black-Draught is the best medicine on earth. It is good for any and everything. I have a family of twelve children, and for four years I have kept them on foot and healthy with no doctor but Black-Draught. A. J. GREEN, Illewara, La.

WANTED—TRUSTWORTHY MEN and women to travel and advertise for old established house of solid financial standing. Salary $780 a year and expenses, all payable in cash. No canvassing required. Give references and enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. Address Manager, 355 Caxton Bldg., Chicago.

A BOTTLE MORGUE.

Odd Department That Is Maintained In Some Drugstores.

The woman left the prescription and said she would call for the medicine in half an hour.

"I'll bet $5 she won't," said the clerk. "She just looks like the kind that gets medicine put up for the fun of the thing."

"I didn't know there was anybody foolish enough to take his fun that way," remarked the next customer.

"Oh, yes, there are such people—lots of them," said the clerk. "Seldom a week passes that we do not put up a prescription that is never called for. Why in the world the people who thus neglect their remedies after ordering them compounded will go to the trouble and expense of consulting a doctor is more than I can figure out. If they don't want to take the stuff prescribed, they certainly don't have to, but they might at least have the grace to come and take it home after we have gone to the trouble to prepare it and not throw it back, a dead loss on our hands. Why, I've got a regular morgue back there for the repose of uncalled for bottles of medicine. I keep the stuff indefinitely, hoping that in case the customer has not been carried off by sudden death she will show up again some time and ask for the bottle. If I happen to know the delinquent's address, I send it around C. O. D., but people who make a practice of ordering medicine that they never intend to take are not apt to leave their card with the druggist.

"Most of these nuisances in the drug business are women, and many of their prescriptions have been written by out of town doctors several months or, in some cases, years ago. In such cases the customer probably has no intention of coming back for the medicine, but merely wishes it compounded through some freakish fancy. In order to guard against loss through such crazy whims we ought by right to demand a deposit on all prescriptions to be called for later on, but such an innovation would undoubtedly bring out a mighty howl, and we have never had the courage to suggest it."—New York Press.

A PECULIAR HOTEL.

Its Rooms Named For States Instead of Being Numbered.

"In a little town in the backwoods of Mississippi," remarked a traveling man, "there is a peculiar hotel. It is just like any other hotel except in the way the rooms are named. They are not numbered, as is generally done, but each room is named for a state of the United States.

"When I stopped at the place, I was assigned to a room called 'Delaware.' It was correctly named, too, for it was one of the smallest rooms in the house. A man who was occupying 'New Hampshire' made complaint to the landlord that the man in 'Maine' was drunk and boisterous and was thus keeping him awake. This seemed strange, when we recall that Maine is a prohibition state. Two men up in 'Montana' were keeping up the reputation of the wild west by engaging in a noisy poker game. A big, fat capitalist had 'New York,' which was the best room in the house. The room named for Alabama is too ordinary for anything, and a farmer was occupying it the night I was there.

"It was funny to stand in the office and hear a bellboy tell the clerk that towels were wanted in 'Iowa' and that the fellow in 'North Dakota' was kicking like a steer because he had no fire. 'Send two Manhattan cocktails up to Mississippi' was one of the orders that the clerk gave. 'Be sure to call the man in Florida at 5 o'clock in the morning,' said one of the employees. And thus it went. This hotel is a curiosity to the traveling public. It is conducted by an eccentric old fellow, but where he conceived the idea of naming rooms after states I do not know."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

American Trade Long Ago.

To the notices which we have from time to time published of the favorable posture of trade we may add a gratifying view of our commerce with the United States. Its extent is probably more considerable than our readers would imagine. The exports from Scotland of manufactured goods to various parts of the Union will this year amount to about £2,000,000. The magnitude of the sum will appear more surprising when we consider the restrictions which prohibit us from taking in exchange agricultural produce. A trade so important it behooves us to cherish with all possible care, and it is gratifying to think that customers so valuable are a free people, little likely to impede her prosperity by projects of ambition.—London Globe, 1822.

Welsh Grammar and Spelling.

The following notice is inscribed above the door of a shop in a North Wales village: "—— Coblar, daler in Bacco Shag and Pig Bacon and Gingarbred Eggs laid every morning by me, and very good Paradise, in the summer gentlemen and Lady can have good Tae and Crumquets, and Strawbery with a scim milk, because I can't get no cream. N. B. Shuse and Boots medned very well."

What More Could He Want?

"What is your father's objection to me, Millie?" asked the young man.

"He says you have no application, Gerald."

"No application!" he echoed bitterly. "I wonder if he knows I've been coming to see you twice a week for nearly six years!"—Chicago Tribune.

There is no use in repining that life is short. It is not to be measured by the quantity of its years, but by the quality of its achievements.—Philadelphia Ledger.

STAGECOACH DAYS.

Story of a Trip From Portsmouth to London In 1780.

There are men and women—and they are not always the old—who deplore the breathless pace of the age. In stagecoach days, they tell us, life was a different thing. People journeyed through the years leisurely then; existence had a flavor. A century ago a journey meant fellowship and merry adventures and a comfortable enjoyment of the beauties of the landscape.

All this may be so, but a traveler who made the journey from Portsmouth to London in 1780 shows that even stagecoach days had their shadows.

"The getting up on the coach alone was at the risk of one's life," he wrote, "and when I was up I had nothing to hold on to except a little handle at the side. The moment we set off I thought I saw certain death before me. The machine rolled with tremendous rapidity over the stones and every minute seemed to fly in the air, so that it appeared to me a complete miracle that we stuck to the coach at all.

"This continual fear of death at last became insupportable to me, and I carefully crept along the top of the coach and easconced myself in the basket behind.

"On a sudden the coach proceeded at a rapid rate down a hill. All the boxes, iron nailed and copper fastened, began to dance around me, and every moment I received such violent blows that I thought my last hour had come. Shaken to pieces, bleeding and sore, I crept back to my former position. And it rained incessantly, and as before we were covered with dust so now we were soaked with rain.

"My neighbor every now and then fell asleep and when in this state perpetually rolled and jolted against me with the whole weight of his body, more than once nearly pushing me from the seat to which I clung with the last strength of despair. I looked and certainly felt like a crazy fool when I arrived in London."

The letter is realistic. It is possible that twentieth century traveling, although unromantic, has its compensations after all.—Youth's Companion.

POULTRY POINTERS.

When chickens grow very fast, it sometimes causes leg weakness.

Under usual conditions a variety of food is better than any medicine that can be given.

The only safe way of disposing of dead fowls that have died of any contagious disease is to burn them.

Clover contains two elements that are in demand by the hens—nitrogen and lime. It is rich in the elements required for the whites of eggs.

When roup gets into a flock, it invariably leaves some ailment behind. The fowl that has been subject to it is seldom healthy again.

There is no cure for feather pulling except by more labor and time than an ordinary flock is worth. The best plan is to get rid of the guilty fowls as soon as possible.

A hen seldom begins to eat eggshells until she finds one broken or until she becomes accustomed to eating eggs thrown out into the yard. The safest plan is always to crumble them up fine before feeding.

Taming the Cheetah In India.

The cheetah is tied in all directions, principally from a thick grummet of rope around his loins, while a hood fitted over his head effectually blinds him. He is fastened on a strong cot bedstead, and the keepers and their wives and families reduce him to submission by starving him and keeping him awake. His head is made to face the village street, and for an hour at a time several times a day his keepers make pretended rushes at him and wave cloths, staves and other articles in his face. He is talked to continually, and women's tongues are believed to be the most effective antisoporifics. No created being could resist the effects of hunger, want of sleep and feminine scolding, and the poor cheetah becomes piteously, abjectly tame.—"Beast and Man In India."

Tunnel Discomforts.

The prairie dog that had started out to see the world was taking in the sights in a neighboring village inhabited by his own species.

"Well," he said as he backed hastily out of a subterranean dwelling that a rattlesnake had pre-empted, "I see they have the same tunnel problem to solve here that they have in other cities."—Chicago Tribune.

A Platform Speaker.

"That man," remarked Smithers, "makes a hundred speeches from the platform every day."

"Some great political leader?" asked Smithers.

"No," replied Smithers, "street car conductor. He says, 'Move up forward, please!' every time any one gets on his car."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The Advantage of Waiting.

Her Father—But, my boy, surely you are too young to marry Aurelia. How old are you?

Her Suitor—One and twenty, sir.

Her Father—And she is twenty-seven—too great a disparity. Why not wait half a dozen years? Then you'll be twenty-seven and she'll probably be just about the same age as you.

A Sage Conclusion.

Uncle Reuben says: "Arter arguin' fur forty y'ars dat de whale couldn't possibly have swallered Joner and makin' three or four enemies a y'ar ober it I has come to de conclusion dat my belief, one way or de odder, wouldn't affect de past 2 cents' wuth. I have simply wasted a heap o' breath fur nuthin'!"—Detroit Free Press.

The History of Inoculation.

Inoculation is no new thing. The Chinese were the earliest to practice it. They dipped a plug of cotton or rag in the virus from a pustule and placed it in the nostril. Two ancient English physicians, Gilbertus Angelicus and John of Gaddesden, both speak of smallpox as commonly known, but the Chinese remedy was unknown to them.

The first book on smallpox was written by a priest and physician who lived at Alexandria and wrote thirty books on physic in A. D. 683. He also knew nothing of vaccination, but advised swimming, drinking ice water in large quantities, saffron and warming medicine.

The real discovery of vaccination, we are told, was made before Jenner conducted his experiments. In the year 1774 it occurred to Benjamin Jesty, a Dorsetshire farmer, having the old notion about cowpox being an antidote for smallpox, that it would serve as well to be "cut" for cowpox, so accordingly he himself did actually "cut" his wife and children for that disease. But Jesty is unknown to fame. Jenner's name is blessed—and banned—by millions.

Sly Fishermen.

In nearly all streams where the current is swift you will find the nets of the caddice worms tucked down between two rocks or fastened to a flat stone on the brink of a waterfall. These little nets catch stray water bugs and sometimes entangle small fish. They are made of a silken fabric which the worm spins with its mouth and are shaped like a funnel, the larger end being pointed up stream so that the water, rushing past, spreads them out in position. The nets are very strong and quite similar in construction to a spider's web. Close by his net the little fisherman builds his home. Lift up the nearby rocks, and under them you will find a little bunch of pebbles bound together by silk threads. In among these is a small silk tube, in which the worm lives. Were it not for the pebbles attached to it the caddice worm's home would go sailing down the stream. As an extra precaution he oftentimes fastens one end of the silk thread to a large stone.

Kindred Minds.

General Thiebault says that at one time when Napoleon was carrying out an operation which could only be accomplished with absolute secrecy he rode one day to the head of a column, where he heard a soldier say:

"Faith, if I were general in chief I know what I should do."

"Well," called Napoleon, "what would you do?"

The soldier unfolded his plan. It was the very one which Napoleon himself had evolved.

"Rascal!" cried the general. "Will you hold your tongue?"

After the battle which had proved the wisdom of the project he sought about for the soldier whose mind had mirrored his. The man was dead.

Profit In Ancient History.

A gentleman who was visiting one of the public schools in a Scotch town asked a bright looking boy:

"What profit is there in the study of ancient history?"

"About 18 pence, I suppose," was the reply.

"What?"

"Well, the teacher makes us buy the books from him, and we have to pay 3 shillings. I think he gets them for 18 pence apiece, so he has a clear profit of 18 pence, according to my calculation."—London Standard.

Rattled.

He—I trust you have forgiven me for not recalling your name the other evening, although I remembered your face perfectly.

She—Oh, yes; but my name is such a plain one I should think you would have remembered it quite as readily.

He—Not at all. Your name isn't half as plain as—er—beg pardon; your face is much more aristocratic than your—I mean to say that your name is harder than—

The distracting headaches from which so many women suffer make life a daily purgatory. If men suffered with headache as women do, business would be almost at a stanstill. Does not the fact that men do not suffer from these severe headaches suggest that there must be a womanly cause for them?

When the womanly organism is diseased, headache, backache, nervousness and sleeplessness are consequences which are sure to follow.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures headaches and other aches and pains by curing their cause. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It soothes pain and builds up the nerves. It transforms weak, sickly, nervous invalids into happy, healthy women. Thousands have testified to its marvelous merits.

"I took two bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and two of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and am feeling well," writes Mrs. Dan McKenzie, of Lorway Mines, Cape Breton Co., Nova Scotia. "I had uterine trouble, pain in the side and headache. After taking your medicines I got well. You may publish this or use it in any way you think best, as I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

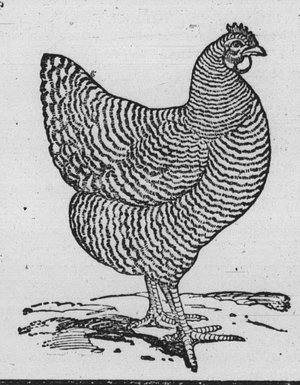

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send twenty-one one-cent stamps for the the book in paper covers, or thirty-one stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

W. T. Park, one of Petaluma's practical poultry raisers, says about

Coulson's Balanced Ration
EGG FOOD

As a test I have been feeding to 150 laying hens Coulson's Balanced Ration Egg Food for the past four weeks, and I am well satisfied that it is good stuff. From these 150 hens I now get an average of four dozen eggs a day, and I am certain that some of these hens are laying three eggs in four days. As a further test I bought fifty hens that were all run down; their combs were black, and their feathers were half missing. I commenced feeding them Coulson's Egg Food, and after two weeks' feeding on this food they have picked up wonderfully; their combs are bright red, they have a new crop of feathers, and about twenty of them have started to lay, as I get from this lot twelve to eighteen eggs a day; and each day one or two new ones start to lay; and so I am well satisfied that Coulson's Egg Food is good Feed and gives good results.

We have many testimonials like this coming in every day. If you want to get your hens to laying buy a ton of this food for $33, and feed it to the hens as a mush once a day, and in three or four weeks you will be surprised at the returns.

SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE.

Sonoma, Sonoma County, Cal., March 28, 1903.

H. H. GRANICE, Editor.

The Metropolitan Press and the Railroads.

The Press of the metropolis comes to us this week freighted with all sorts of rumors in regard to the reputed sale of the California Northwestern to one of the big transcontinental railway lines. One day they have it that the Santa Fe is the buyer and the next day they are positive that the Southern Pacific has outwitted the Santa Fe and secured the prize. While there may be something in these railway rumors they should be read and digested with many grains of allowance, particularly when it is taken into consideration that at this time the reporters of our sky-scraping city contemporaries are "falling all over themselves" in an effort to secure a "scoop" on this latest rumored railway deal. That one of the several transcontinental railway lines which are striving for the Pacific Coast and Oriental trade will sooner or later absorb the California Northwestern does not admit of a doubt, as it is a positive fact that more than one of them have been casting covetous eyes on the property of late years.

President Foster and Passenger Agent Ryan of the California Northwestern, both of them indefatigable railway workers, have done much to improve their road and build up and enrich the territory through which it passes. Particularly is this true as to Sonoma and Marin. Through the efforts of those two men thousands of people have been lured to those counties the past two or three summers to enjoy our blue skies, balmy breezes, magnificent scenery, mineral springs and the many other attractions of this section of California. Many of these summer visitors ultimately return and establish permanent homes among us while all of them leave behind more or less money. This, more than any other one thing, has caused the present building activity in the Sonoma Valley.

Let us hope that should the California Northwestern pass into other hands that the work mapped out by Mr. Foster and Mr. Ryan for the upbuilding of the country through which it passes will be carried on by their successors, it matters not whom those succesors may be.

The taxpayers of California have reason to be pleased with the intimation that the State tax rate for the next two years will be a fraction below sixty cents, remarks the Los Angeles Herald. Indications have all pointed, up to a recent period, to a rate above sixty cents, with some likelihood of reaching sixty-five cents. Legislation in the early part of the session of our State Legislature fully warranted that conclusion, The extravagance manifested at the very outset gave rise to grave apprehension, But now comes the gratifying surprise that the rate will fall below the figure that was supposed to be the minimum of taxation necessary for an economic expense account. This pleasing change in the tax outlook is due partly to the attitude of the Governor in demanding economy in appropriations, and also to a change in the extravagant tendencies of legislators. The reckless methods at the outset of the session called down a shower of condemnation from all parts of the State, resulting in more cautious use of the public funds. The Legislature has redeemed its early indiscretions, to a considerable extent, and there is still time for further amends.

SUPERIOR COURT NOTES.

In Judge Seawell's department of the Superior Court on Monday the will of the late Miss M. E. Slater was admitted to probate and Frank C. Loomis was appointed executor without bonds.

The sale of property to H. H. Shafer was confirmed in the estate of Matthew Wallace King, a minor.

The first annual account of the estate of Edith Church was settled and allowed.

A petition to sell two mortgages of the estate of B. W. Hunt, was granted.

The will of Miss Rachel Mashall was admitted to probate.

A sale of property was confirmed in the estate of Elizabeth Wisecarver.

The order to show cause on a sale of real estate in the estate of Samuel L. Brown was granted.

A petition for an order of sale of real property in the estate of Henry P. Lichau was set for hearing on April 20.

Probate matters continued: Estates of Daisy Kidd, a minor, Pilar L. Soeder, William Currier, Walter C. Good, to March 30.

A petition to set apart a homestead in the estate of Clara Baker was granted.

The divorce suit of Haverly vs. Haverly was submitted and taken under advisement.

Default was entered in the Robinson divorce suit and it was set for trial for March 25.

The action of Jellet vs. Santa Rosa Bank and Jellett vs. Meneray, were continued to April 6, to be set for trial; Jacinto vs. Jacinto, to April 6; Guglielmetti vs. Barry to March 30.

A sale of property of the estate of B. F. Mather was ordered and the bond was fixed at $27,000.

In Judge Burnett's department the new trial of Fred Derbert, charged with rape, was set for April 23.

These matters were set for trial: Peterson Bros. vs. Chaix & Bernard for May 7; King vs. Santa Rosa National Bank, for April 28; Hargreaves vs. Hargreaves, for April 9.

The matter of objection in the action of Risk vs. Kerrison, was dismissed.

The action of Maionchi vs. Nichelini was continued for one week, and the estate of Winkler for the same period.

The costs in the action of the Fisherman's Bay Company against H. McMillen was reduced to $40.50.

The actions of Peters vs. William and Calder vs. Swain were continued two weeks one week respectively.

MRS. CARRIE P. HANNAFORD.

New Life and Strength Came to Her.

A Massachusetts woman, Mrs. CARRIE P. HANNAFORD, of No. 69 Hale St., Beverly, Mass., who is well-known socially there, being Treasurer of the Order of the EASTERN STAR, wrote her experience as follows:

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' is, without a doubt, the finest remedy on the market to-day, for female difficulties. I suffered for four years with pains every period, and I dreaded the approach of the time as I knew it meant two or three days' misery. Tried several different widely-advertised remedies, and found that they did me no good whatever. One day a friend called, who had suffered as I was suffering, and who told me that she had been cured through the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, so I purchased a package. I found that the real value of your medicine was greater even than my expectations, and the next month I had hardly any pains. The following month had none at all, and found that my general health was much better and new life and strength had come to me.

"These are the actual facts, and I feel that it is due you that I should write you. Sincerely yours,

Mrs. CARRIE P. HANNAFORD."

To Hon. R. V. Pierce, M. D.

Young women or matrons should not allow themselves to look sallow and wrinkled because of those pains and weaknesses which become chronic and are the result of colds, tight lacing, and imprudent care of the womanly system. Many a woman would look beautiful, have a healthy color and bright eyes if it were not for those drains on her strength and those weaknesses which come all too frequently and make her life miserable. There is a ready-to-use Prescription, used a great many years by Dr. R. V. Pierce in his large practice as a Specialist in women's diseases, which is not like the many "patent medicines" on the market, as it contains neither alcohol nor any narcotic. It is purely vegetable.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It cures headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and other consequences of womanly disease. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

$500 Reward FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they can not cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Their financial responsibility is well known to every newspaper publisher and druggist in the United States, with most of whom they have done business for over a third of a century. From this fact it will readily be seen how utterly foolish it would be for them to make the above unprecedented and remarkable offer if they were not basing their offer on curative means having an unparalleled record. No other medicine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription could possibly "win out," as the saying goes, on such a proposition. But they know whereof they speak. They have the most remarkable record of cures made by this world-famed remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially designed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. This wonderful remedy, therefore, stands absolutely alone as the only one possessed of such remarkable curative properties as would warrant its makers in publishing such a marvelous offer as is above made in the utmost good faith.

"I want to tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having good health again. Could not sit up all day. I noted a great improvement before the first bottle was all used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to: had inflammation of ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and not feel tired."

Beauties of the North Shore Scenic Route.

The North Shore people are certainly showing up the advantages and attractions of the counties tributary to its lines. Recently it issued an agricultural leaflet and now it has a very handsome illustrated folder exploiting the unsurpassed attractions of the Russian River district for summer cottages, camps and outings of every description.

The North Shore traverses a very scenic and delightful summer country.

The cottage colony at Monte Rio Park is assuming comfortable proportions. Seventy-seven lots have already been sold.

A two-cent stamp sent with address to M. S. Latham, City Passenger Agent, 626 Market street, San Francisco, will secure one of the illustrated folders.

High School Notes.

The smiling face of Campbell MacQuiddy was greeted with great pleasure when he paid his old friends a visit at the High School this week.

When the S. V. U. H. S. base ball team play their next game we would like you all to be present, wearing our colors and cheering the gold and white.

Miss Mattie McGimsey made her old school mates a pleasant visit one day last week. We hope that she will place her name on next term's roll call.

Great preparations are being made by the High School students for the entertainment of their friends at the garden party which will take place on April 3rd. We hope to meet all of our friends upon that day, as you are all cordially invited to attend.

The S. V. U. H. S. base ball team met the Glen Ellen Railroad nine on the field at Glen Ellen last Sunday, where a match game took place. The game was pronounced a most interesting one by all those present, as a very close game was played, the score being 17 to 20 in favor of the Glen Ellen team.

A most interesting debate took place at our High School last Friday, at which our parlimentary law was put to practice. The subject under debate was, "Should we play Tennis?" and was handled most skillfully. The leaders of the debate were Miss N. Gordenker '03, affirmative, and Mr. Eugene W. Hunt '03, negative. So lively was the debate and so evenly matched the sides, that the judges in all honesty could not decide which should win the laurel wreath, so a judgment of "tie" was pronounced.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

DEAFNESS CURED

Louisville Man Originates a Simple Little Device that Instantly Restores the Hearing --- Fits Perfectly, Comfortably and Does Not Show.

190-page Book Free---Tells all About It.

Since the discovery of a Louisville man it is no longer necessary for any deaf person to carry a trumpet, a tube or any such old-fashioned device, for it is now possible for any one to hear perfectly by a simple invention that fits in the ear and cannot be detected. The honor belongs to Mr. Geo. H. Wilson of Louisville, who was himself deaf, and now hears as well as any one. He calls it Wilson's Common Sense Ear Drum, is built on the strictest scientific principles, containing no metal of any kind, and is entirely new in every respect. It is so small that no one can see it, but nevertheless it collects all sound waves and diverts them against the drum head, causing you to hear perfectly. It will do this even when the natural ear drums are partially or entirely destroyed, perforated, scarred, relaxed or thickened. It fits any ear from childhood to old age, and aside from the fact that it does not show, it never causes the hearer irritation, and can be used with comfort day or night.

It will cure deafness in any person no matter how acquired, whether from catarrh, scarlet fever, typhoid or brain fever, measles, whooping cough, gathering in the ear, shocks from artillery or through accidents. It not only cures but stays the progress of deafness and all roaring and buzzing noises. It does this in a simple, sure and scientific way. The effect is immediate.

Let every person who needs this, at once send to the company for its 190-page book, which you can have free. It describes and illustrates Wilson's Common Sense Ear Drums and contains many bona fide letters from numerous users in the United States, Canada, Mexico, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, India. These letters are from people in every station of life, clergymen, physicians, lawyers, mercnants, society ladies, etc., and tell the truth about the benefits to be derived from the use of this wonderful little device. You will find among them the names of people in your own town or State, and you are at liberty to write to any of them you wish and secure their opinion as to the merits of the only scientific ear drums for restoring the hearing to its normal condition.

Write to-day and it will not be long before you are ag in hearing. Address, for the free book and convincing evidence, Wilson Ear Drum Co., Todd Building, Louisville, Ky., U. S. N.

SONOMA, MARCH 28, 1903.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

PIONEER HOTEL-KEEPER DEAD.

"Tony Oakes," Who Lived Here in the Fifties, Dies Suddenly.

"Tony Oakes," who kept the first hotel in Sonoma, died suddenly of heart failure at the home of his son in Santa Clara county, on the 22nd inst., at the age of 73 years.

The pioneer hotel man came to Sonoma in the early fifties and opened a hotel in the building now owned and occupied by C. Aguillon. He was known far and wide in those days as one of the most genial and entertaining hosts north of San Francisco. The deceased left here years ago and opened a resort at Haywards, Alameda county, which he conducted for thirty years or more.

The deceased will be remembered by the old timers of this valley, of whom there are but few left.

IMPROVED RAILWAY TRAIN SERVICE.

Solid Through Passenger Trains for Sonoma Valley Towns.

The California Northwestern railway is preparing for the summer visitors to this valley and the other points along its main and branch lines.

On and after Sunday, May 3d, solid passenger trains will leave San Francisco every morning at 8 o'clock, instead of 7:30, as at present.

Instead of one train in the morning to points north of San Rafael there will be two. The boat leaving Tiburon ferry at 7:30 A. M. will connect at Tiburon with a through train for Willitts, making but few stops south of Fulton, and arriving at Willitts at 1:20 P. M. This insures quick transit to all stage points and a daylight ride through the coast points.

Another will leave at 8 P. M., furnishing solid trains through to Schellville, Vineburg, Sonoma, Verano, Agua Caliente and Glen Ellen, and to all points to Santa Rosa and on the Guerneville branch.

The train for Ukiah and Guerneville branch which leaves San Francisco now at 3:30 P. M., will leave at 2:30 P. M., reaching Ukiah and intermediate points an hour or more earlier, and will be a great accommodation to summer patrons, particularly on Saturdays. The 5:10 from San Francisco will take care of passengers to Santa Rosa, Sebastopol and other points on the Sonoma branch. The above service will govern daily, including Sundays.

Farewell Party.

A farewell party was given in honor of Mr. Clarence Cheney by the Sonoma Social Club, in Weyl's Hall, on Friday evening of last week. A jolly young crowd made the evening most pleasant for Mr. Cheney, who is one of the most popular young men in Sonoma Valley. Dancing was the principal feature of the occasion. At 12 o'clock a repast was served in the supper room and Mr. Cheney was called upon for a speech and readily responded, expressing his appreciation for the little affair given in his honor and regretted having to part with all his friends who were most dear to him. Dancing was resumed after justice had been done to the spread and was kept up until A. M., when the guests took their departure, wishing Mr. Cheney every success in his new undertaking. He left the following morning for an extended trip in the northern part of the State, having accepted a trusted position with a large St. Louis shoe firm.

Death of Mrs. Rovai.

Mrs. Louisa Rovai, wife of Frank Rovai, died in Santa Rosa last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Rovai resided in this valley for many years and for a long time had charge of Robert Halstead's ranch near Agua Caliente. They removed to Santa Rosa several years ago. The deceased lady was a native of Italy and aged 37 years. The remains were brought to this place for interment in the Catholic Cemetery.

The funeral took place from St. Francis' Church Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Landscape Gardener.

Mr. L. Mouyer, an experienced florist and landscape gardener, lately of San Francisco, has recently purchased a home in El Verano and will give his attention to laying out and making flower gardens in this valley. His services can be secured at a reasonable figure and if you want your garden to be put in proper shape you will save money by employing him. His address is El Verano. Mr. Mouyer's adv. will be found in another column.

Spring Opening Ball.

A spring opening ball will be given at Mervyn Hall, Glen Ellen, Saturday evening, April 18th. The floor will be under the management of Messrs. Hermann and Robinson and the music will be furnished by Prof. Schieck's orchestra. A large delegation of party-goers from Santa Rosa, Kenwood and other near-by towns will be present. Everybody is welcome to attend.

Sonoma Racket Store.

This fine new store on Broadway is now completely stocked with the finest line of dry goods and gents furnishing goods to be found north of San Francisco. *

Wm. and Louis Kearney drove over to Lakeville last Sunday.

Miss Mae Chance is home after a pleasant visit in the metropolis.

Mr. Wm. Baines of San Francisco visited Pine Grove Sunday.

A number of El Verano sports took in the ball game at Glen Ellen Sunday.

Mrs. James Oliver is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis of this place.

A swell bus for the Bellevue Hotel was received here the fore part of the week.

Frank Freggrario has set out a number of pine trees on his ranch west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Key of San Jose spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. F. Weaver.

W. H. Baines has erected a new windmill on his ranch in the western addition of town.

Mr. Nevraumont of the firm of Nevraumont Bros., San Francisco, is visiting relatives here.

Geo. Bruns has one of the finest chicken ranches in the valley. He now has 2,000 chickens.

Chas. Danile and family of Sonoma have moved into their neat cottage on Willow avenue.

Miss Emily Kearney returned from Oakland last Sunday evening after a two-weeks' visit with friends.

Jean Dutil, now a dry goods clerk in the Emporium, San Francis, visited his parents here Monday.

The Fair estate shipped a carload of cattle to Knight's Landing, last Tuesday, via the Southern Pacific.

Louis Kearney left for Santa Rosa Thursday, where he goes to take the position of Superintendent of the County Farm.

Mrs. Ernest Hoen, accompanied by her little son, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis, on their ranch near here.

Harry and George Baines are up and around after a severe spell of sickness. Their many friends wish them a speedy recovery.

Mr. John Serres, the new landlord of the Bellevue Hotel, has made a number of neat improvements in and around that popular resort.

The engine attached to the pay car of the Southern Pacific Company ran over and killed two cows at Snyder's switch on Wednesday evening.

Fred. Wheeler, son in-law of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lord, is visiting his relatives here. Mr. Wheeler is the Postmaster at London, Ontario, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Riser were called to Centerville last Friday to attend the funeral of Mr. Riser's mother, who died the previous day at the ripe old age of 74 years.

A scab carpenter from San Francisco raised a great disturbance here last Monday night. He finally went to Sonoma, where he was run into the lock-up by an officer.

Chas. H. Hayes, who met so tragic a death in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, the other night, visited here often in the interest of the Sonoma Valley Improvement Company.

Wm. Kelly, boss painter at the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, has bought a chicken ranch at this place. Mr. Kelly intends to erect new buildings on his purchase immediately.

A. D. Graham has been appointed Road Overseer of this district, vice Frank Weaver, resigned. The latter's time is being taken up with business affairs in the metropolis, hence his resignation.

HAPPY HOOLIGAN.

El Verano, March 26, 1903.

Maionchi vs. Nichelini.

Superior Judge Burnett has decided that the complaint in the action of Maionchi vs. Nichelini, states a cause of action. In rendering the decision the Court says:

"I think there is no doubt that the amended complaint states a cause of action against Nichelini and as the action has been dismissed as against the Chauvets the demurrer of Florendo and Ben Nichelini is overruled.

Valuable Horse Sold

Dr. T. A. Nufer, V. S., sold another of his fine young Pollock stallions Thursday. The animal has been shipped to Sutter county, where the purchaser resides. It is said that $900 was paid for the stallion.

SONOMA COUNTY GRAND JURY.

Several Well-known Citizens Indicted.

The Gaand Jury Saturday afternoon filed a supplemental report, the second made so far by that body, returning three indictments, two of which are for perjury and one for embezzlement.

Former District Attorney O. O. Webber is the man indicted for the alleged embezzlement, and the charge is understood to have grown out of the fact that when removing his effects from the Courthouse at the close of his term of office, some eleven law books belonging to the county were also carted away. Mr. Webber claims that while this is true, it was through no fault of his, but because of a mistake upon the part of the janitor and expressman. However that may be, the books were returned when Mr. Webber's attention was called to the matter.

D. W. Cozad is one of the men charged with perjury. The charge grows out of his connection with the Lowry will matter. It will be remembered that at the preliminary examination of P. D. Schlotterbach, indicted by the last Grand Jury upon a charge of attempting to induce a witness to give false testimony, Cozad was one of the principal witnesses. Judge Brown, before whom the preliminary examination was held, dismissed Schlotterbach upon the grounds of insufficiency of evidence.

The third indictment charged ex-City Marshal C. H. Holmes Jr., of Santa Rosa with the crime of perjury, alleged to have been committed while testifying in the Lowry will case. Mr. Holmes is now residing in San Francisco.

The Press Democrat says that Mr. Webber's bond has been fixed at $2,000 and approved with the following sureties, each of whom qualified for the full amount of the bond: John P. Overton, Blitz W. Paxton, L. W. Burris, C. A. Wright, E. C. Merritt, A. B. Lemmon, Chas. R. Farmer, O. Frank Leppo, Frank Koenig and Ney L. Donovan.

Resigned Foremanship of Grand Jury.

Fred. T. Duhring sent in his resignation as foreman of the Sonoma County Grand Jury last Saturday, which was accepted.

A. V. McNab was appointed in Mr. Duhring's place, and the deliberations of that body were not in the least interfered with.

The critical illness of Mr. Duhring's mother, who has been given up by the doctors, caused him to send in his resignation.

Foreclosure Suit.

An action was brought in the Superior Court last Monday to foreclosure a mortgage executed by Victor and Ragna Janson of this place in favor of Murdock A. Campbell, deceased. The suit is brought by Anton Morgenthal and John A. C. Reiners, executors of the estate, to recover the sum of $2,670, and attorneys fees. The property involved is situated on Second-street West and comprises a number of acres of improved land.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

GLEN ELLEN

By Chappie.

Fred. Quien made a trip to Santa Rosa a short time ago.

Mrs. E. C. Bonbright is visiting friends in San Francisco.

The Misses Crepin visited in San Francisco this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Plum drove to Santa Rosa last Monday.

Leo Justi is transacting business in Rutherford, Napa county.

Mrs. I. .M Merlin-jones and son Clarence visited Petaluma the latter part of the week.

Emmet Smith of Sacramento has been making his mother quite a lengthy visit on their ranch near Warfield.

The Dunbar Improvement Club will hold its regular monthly session in Kenwood next Saturday afternoon.

The interest in the gold diggings still continues. Prospectors daily visit the mine and are favorably impressed with the outlook.

E. M. Gender of the Cottage Hotel is setting his house in order—painting, papering and repairing—getting ready for the summer visitors who will soon be here in full force.

Mr. Webber, recently a baker at the California Home, is to open a bakery in this burg. It will be a great convenience to our people and the campers who spend their summers here in quest of health, rest and enjoyment.

Mr. Thos. Green, a conductor on the California Northwestern Railroad, is with us again and has taken his old run for a short time. He is one of the most popular conductors on the road—a very gentlemanly, genial and worthy young man.

Mrs. A. E. Gibson, who has been very ill all winter, is around town again looking as bright and cheerful as ever. She is a pioneer settler and a smart, energetic lady. Her cozy little home is in the heart of town surrounded by shade trees, lively flowers and trailing vines.

The entertainment given in May Flower Hall last Friday evening was a very successful and brilliant affair and compared very favorably with the performances of the city theatres with their legitimate companies. It was finely arranged and the different characters well sustained. The attendance was very large, the hall being filled. It would not be out of place to repeat the play as every one enjoyed it so well. Had it been better advertised the seating capacity of the hall would have been insufficient to accomodate the crowd. Too much praise cannot be given to W. S. Bonbright who so ably managed it and made it a perfect success.

Mrs. Genieve of San Francisco spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Husson.

Mrs. Fred Schell and her pretty little son will shortly leave for Belmont, where they will spend the summer.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will give a joint invitation entertainment and hop at Union Hall on the evening of April 24th.

A jolly crowd of young folks rode to Napa Monday morning in Mr. Spaulding's automobile, Helen Church being the chaffeur.

We have on hand a limited number of copies of the special eight-page illustrated edition of the INDEX TRIBUNE issued last June. Ten cents a copy or three for 25 cents. Get a few copies and send them to your friends in the East as an inducement for them to locate here.

Ladies' Whist Club.

The Ladies' Whist Club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. G. H. Hotz at her hospitable home on Broadway. Progressive Whist was the principal feature of the afternoon and much interest was manifested by the members as the game progressed as to who the lucky winner of the first prize would fall to.

After a fine game had been played time was called, and Miss Minnie Cook carried off the first prize for her clever playing, which consisted of a very beautiful lace handkerchief. Mrs. Susie Enos scored second, and was awarded the second prize, a silver mounted bottle of smelling salts. The booby prize was given to Mrs. N. R. Knight.

At 5 P. M. the members were bidden to the dining room, where a dainty repast was partaken of and where merriment reigned supreme for more than an hour when the party reluctantly came to an end, every one present returning home with a happy smile and declaring Mrs. Hotz a most successful hostess.

March, April, May

There is a best time for doing everything—that is, a time when a thing can be done to the best advantage, most easily and most effectively. Now is the best time for purifying your blood. Why? Because your system is now trying to purify it—you know this by the pimples and other eruptions that have come on your face and body.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Are the medicines to take—they do the work thoroughly and agreeably and never fail to do it.

Hood's are the medicines you have always heard recommended.

"I cannot recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla too highly as a spring medicine. When we take it in the spring we all feel better through the summer." MRS. S. H. NEAL, McCrays, Pa.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

SONOMA, SATURDAY, MARCH 28, 1903

GREELEY'S REVENGE.

Outcome of the Editor's Tiff With Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

The late Elizabeth Cady Stanton was particularly apt at retort, and one of her swift parries of a thrust delivered by Horace Greeley against her favorite doctrine of woman suffrage is historic.

"Madam," said Horace one day during the civil war, "the ballot and the bullet go together. If you want to vote, are you ready to fight?"

"Certainly, sir," she responded. "I am ready to fight, just as you are fighting, through a substitute."

Notwithstanding their differences of opinion, Mrs. Stanton and Greeley were personally friendly until the New York constitutional convention of 1868. A woman suffrage clause was strenuously pressed upon that body and as vigorously opposed by Mr. Greeley. One day, after the Tribune editor had made some particularly rasping remarks upon the subject, George William Curtis rose and said:

"I have the honor, Mr. Chairman, to present a petition in favor of the woman suffrage amendment signed by Mrs. Horace Greeley and 300 other ladies."

Greeley was furious and rightly ascribed the appearance of the memorial at that moment to Mrs. Stanton.

"Why did you not put my wife's maiden name on that petition and call her Mary Cheney Greeley?" he demanded the next time they met.

"Because," said Mrs. Stanton, "I wanted all the world to know that Horace Greeley's wife protested against her husband's report on the suffrage amendment."

"All right," retorted the editor. "Hereafter you shall always be spoken of in the Tribune as Mrs. Henry B. Stanton." And so it was to the time of her death, although the name of Elizabeth Cady Stanton was known to hundreds of thousands who could not identify the woman by the appellation under which the Tribune, for revenge, tried to obscure her fame.—Pilgrim.

POLITENESS IN JAPAN.

Even "Giving Notice" Is Made an Occasion of Compliments.

Politeness distinguishes the relations between mistresses and maids in Japan. It is so inexorable in Japan that even the ceremony of "giving notice" is turned into an occasion of compliments. There are no vulgar threats or sulkings or recriminations or scoldings or "answering back." A servant will never tell her mistress that she is dissatisfied or has had some better place offered her. That would be unpardonably rude. Instead she asks for a few days' leave of absence. This is willingly granted, for Japanese servants have no settled time for taking holidays.

At the end of the given time the mistress will begin to wonder what has become of the girl. She is not left to wonder long. A letter arrives couched in the most polite and humble terms and giving any excuse but the real one. Sometimes it will be that she has found herself too weak for service or that illness at home detains her. Whatever it may be, the plea is never contested, but accepted as final and a new servant engaged. Then, after some weeks have passed, very likely after taking a fresh place, the old servant will turn up one day, express her thanks for past kindnesses and regrets at not returning in time, will take her arrears of wages and her bundles and disappear forever. So the matter ends with the kindest semblance of feeling on both sides.

If the mistress on her part does not wish to have the girl back, she will not tell her so to her face, but will send word. Even when servants come on trial for a few days they often leave nominally to fetch their belongings or make arrangements for their return, never because they have any "complaints" to make. Any discomfort is to be endured rather than the suspicion of bad manners or of anything leading up to a "scene."

Breaking It Gently.

Young Wife—Why, dear, you were the stroke oar at college, weren't you?

Young Husband—Yes, love.

"And a very prominent member of the gymnastic club."

"I was the captain."

"And quite a hand at all athletic exercises?"

"Quite a hand? Why, I was the champion walker, the best runner, the head man at lifting heavy weights, and as for carrying, why, I assure you, I could shoulder with ease a barrel of"—

"Well, love, just please hold the baby for a couple of hours. The nurse has gone out, and I'm tired!"

Tony Weller's Advice.

"And how long," he asked, "have you been a widow?"

"Oh," she replied, with a blush, "the year was up yesterday. But, indeed, I didn't suppose you were so anxious, dearest. You must give me a month at least to get ready."

When he got outside again, he murmured to himself:

"Now I know what old Weller meant."

The Popular Thing to Say.

The sermon was exceptionally long, and the minister had just reached the seventh division of his subject.

"And now, dear brethren," he exclaimed, "what shall I say more?"

"Amen," suggested the thoughtless man who had just waked up.—Chicago Post.

Counsel.

Mr. Meekly—Our neighbor's son is always thrashing my boy. What shall I do about it?

Lawyer—Teach your boy how to fight. Ten dollars, please.—Chicago News.

The air in modern crematories is heated to 1,500 degrees.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a tea-spoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never used it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by F. Duhring. *

INDIGESTION.

is the cause of more discomfort than any other ailment. If you eat the things that you want, and that are good for you, you are distressed. ACKER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS will make your digestion perfect and prevent Dyspepsia and its attendant disagreeable symptoms. You can safely eat anything, at any time, if you take one of these tablets afterward. Sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee 25 cents. Money refunded if you are not satisfied. Send to us for a free sample. W. H. HOOKER & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by F. Duhring. *

WHAT IS THE USE

of suffering from indigestion if you eat what you want, or of starving yourself to avoid such distress? Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after eating will digest your food perfectly and free you from all the disagreeable symptoms of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Eat what you like at any time, and take an Acker Tablet afterward. Positively guaranteed. Your money will always be refunded if you are not satisfied. W. H. HOOKER & Co., Buffalo, N. Y. R. G. Shoults, druggist.

THE WINTER ROUTE EAST.

An erroneous impression prevail- that because the Rocky Mountains have a high elevation, the winter climate is cold and snowy. The fact is the average precipitation of moisture during the entire year is less than fifteen inches, the danger from snow blockades on the rail roads very slight. This is especially true of the Denver & Rio Grande, over which System travel has gone with less interruption for the past ten winters than upon the majority of lines popularly supposed to be free from such delays.

Old winter but adds to the majestic beauty of the mountain scenery along the way. It brings no fear nor discomfort to the traveler on the "Scenic Line of the World."

Our personally conducted daily excursions are operated all the year round and are cheap and comfortabl means of reaching all parts of the East.

Help Wanted—Salesmen to sell 20 typewriter. Will do equally as good work as any $100 machine. Good pay to hustlers. 710 New Life Bld'g, Chicago.

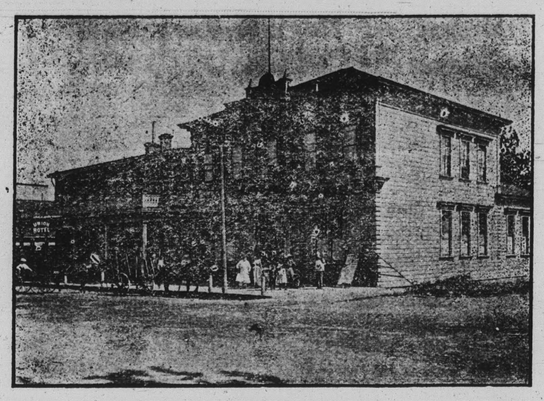

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.

With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Women and Their Troubles.

Once upon a time two women were talking over their troubles, and while one was telling her tale of woe the other was very impatient to tell hers.

Finally, after several unsuccessful attempts, the second woman managed to tell her story, and as she had the last say she improved very much on the tale of the first woman, in consequence of which the first speaker was made quite unhappy.

Moral.—Some women are more wretched than others because the others have more troubles than they have.—New York Herald.

Two Dinners, One Meal.

"I have a lawyer friend whose name is not Henry Peck, but it might be," said a city official.

"Last week my wife and I were invited to his house for dinner, and you never saw finer silver and china on a table, but food was at extreme low tide. My wife gave me a significant glance, and I saw the color rise to the cheeks of our host, but he played the agreeable without a word or look of disapproval.

"Both my wife and I were awfully hungry when we started for home, and she at once accepted my invitation to enter the first restaurant we saw for a good square meal. We were no sooner seated than we saw our dinner host come sneaking in and take a seat in an obscure corner.

"'Make believe that we don't see him,' said my wife, with a woman's tact. We did make believe, and, the funny part is, so did our late host. By the friendly aid of a mirror I saw when he first observed us the color come to his cheeks, as it had at his own table. He turned as far from us as possible and ate as though he were not enjoying his meal very much."—New York Herald.
